an innovation in neighborhood shopping.

Beauty, convenience, and local interest intermingle amid the ultimate open-air shopping experience under the shaded mall of Blue at Valley Bend. Combining the best elements of open-air venues across the country has created a shopping experience that is truly client aware.

While conveniently nestled in Jones Valley's retail district, the combination of restaurants, retail shops, professional office space, apartments, and residential condos creates an all-inclusive neighborhood that departs from the convention of other developments. The design and arrangement of the buildings allow easy access from parking areas to all shops, offices, restaurants, and markets. Large open spaces highlight architectural interest and provide a park-like atmosphere enhanced by waterfalls, exquisitely landscaped gardens and the sight and sound of moving water features. The unique arrangement in which each building intersects the next with corners clipped at 45 degrees allows for wide, shaded sidewalks, large open spaces, al fresco dining and other creative uses of space.

Experience the innovation of neighborhood shopping dedicated to local artistry within Blue at Valley Bend. Enjoy convenience and atmosphere like no other, enveloped by Huntsville's Southern charm in the city's first development to incorporate shop, work, play, and home into a celebration of local style, art, and grace.
